

James was a Mechanical Engineer who founded his own engineering firm and whose designs were used by major corporations. A student who has demonstrated high academic achievement, and is at the top of the class.