

Robert was a Mechanical Engineer who finished his career as a Department Head math teacher. A student who is planning to go into a math related field of work such as engineering, education, construction, or architecture.