

What is IABO?

Iowa Association of Building Officials (IABO) is the Iowa Chapter of the International Code Council (ICC).

IABO members include:

- Building Officials
- Building Inspectors
- Private Inspectors
- Developers
- Architects
- Engineers

These professionals want to promote their safety and awareness objectives and the IABO association through awarding two annual scholarships to deserving college students.

IABO's Mission

Members of the Iowa Association of Building Officials are committed to promoting safety in the construction of buildings and structures, advancing the professional skills of those engaged in the administration and enforcement of building laws, recommending and promoting uniform regulations, legislation and enforcement pertaining to all phases of building construction through the adoption of the International Codes and related codes and documents and to do all such other things as are incidental to or desirable for the attainment of public safety and wellbeing.
